

Genealogical Computing Group

Special Interest Group of the
New Zealand Society of Genealogists
Invercargill Sub-Group

<http://medals.nzdf.mil.nz/>

This web site features the more common medals, which have been awarded to NZ Defence Personnel since the 1840's.

<http://www.armymuseum.co.nz/useful-links/>

NZ military history - Nominal Roll. The National Army Museum has one of the leading N.Z. military research centers in N.Z.

<http://www.nzhistory.net.nz>

Hands-on history links and resources.

Developed by the Auckland Museum, this database contains records and some. This website contains details about ordering military service records of those.

<http://www.nzmhs.org.nz>

N.Z. Military Historical Society.

<http://nzhistory.net.nz>

Links to military resources including personnel records, medal winners and war. Contains details about ordering military service records.

<http://www.archway.archives.govt.nz>

Archives N.Z. is digitizing all the WW1 records held by the N.Z. Defence Force and is publishing them to our website - around 160,000 files.

<http://www.nzetc.victoria.ac.nz/tm/scholarly/tei-WH1-Effo.html>

This gets you into online version of 'The War Effort of New Zealand' includes information about N.Z. war camps in U.K., hospital ships, hospitals etc. Can also search for other WW1 things.

<http://www.nzetc.victoria.ac.nz/tim/scholarly/tei-WH1.NZRi.html>

The official History of N.Z. Rifle Brigade

<http://www.cooksinfo.com/british-wartime-food>

This has official wartime recipes and a great collection as well as images of the Ministry of Food leaflets issued in the UK during WW2.